VOYAGER JET CENTER NAMES NEW MANAGER OF DISPATCH
Seasoned Jet Manager Joins Leading Pittsburgh Private Aviation Firm

PITTSBURGH, NOVEMBER 17, 2008 - Voyager Jet Center, LLC, a provider of world-class executive aircraft management, charter and fixed base operator services, recently named Daniel Flynn of Charlottesville, Virginia its new Manager of Dispatch.

With Voyager's focus on providing exceptional aviation services for its clients, President Richard M. Ryan has chosen a man with more than two decades of aircraft charter service and management experience to fill this position. "Daniel is a private pilot with a degree in meteorology. He brings a variety of proven experiences to the table which complement the Voyager team," says Ryan.

Flynn will be in charge of supervising Voyager Jet Center's AGC (Allegheny County Airport) based flight management dispatch office located in West Mifflin, PA. Having worked at Jet Aviation Charter Services, Executive Jet Management, BAA Jet Management Hong Kong and Computer Technologies for Aviation (CTA) previously, Flynn brings considerable knowledge to his new position at Voyager Jet Center.

"My wife Linda and I are looking forward to making Pittsburgh our new home," Flynn says.
